ANNOUNCEMENTS
- Latino snacks from Saraga
  - Cookies!
  - Peach, mango, apple and guava nectar!
  - A hot and spicy packaged snack
- A Meal and Some MUNDO: Amish Country confirmations have been sent out
  - Meeting at 7:45AM on Saturday
- Applications for LA trip will be coming out Wednesday (Friday at the latest)
  - $350
    - If you have trouble meeting this cost, we have grants and can make accommodations. Contact the LA Action Team for details
- Action Team emails will be on the application

OVERVIEW OF LATINO ART
- History of LA
  - Has had 4 different countries governing it at one point or another
  - Lots of Latino, African-American, and Asian populations and influences
- Plein art movement
  - Painting outside
- Chicano movement
  - Latino-inspired
  - Lots of Dia de los Muertos subject matter
  - Lots of political statements
- Murals
  - Also lots of socio-political statements
  - LA is one of the places with the most murals/graffiti

HALE CENTER ART TOURS
- Speaker: Dr. Larry Williamson
- Art is everywhere
  - In our clothes, in every decision we make, in the buildings, in the design of the chairs we sit on, etc.
  - Street art, high art, folklore, arts and crafts
    - So many different kinds
  - Arts educators, art historians, artists, etc.
- Had tour of art in the Hale Center and history of the Hale Center
  - Learned about abstraction and spirituality in African art, intrinsic vs. monetary value, role of Dr. Hale in establishing OSU as a place for POCs to get PhDs
  - Saw prints, paintings, sculptures, mixed media, etc.
- The collection will be in the Urban Art Space and other more public places starting 2017
- Discussed famous Columbus artists to know

NEXT MEETING
- Back to Union and Dance Room #2
- Mini fall retreat
○ Tank Commander!
○ Planning for next semester