SIGN-IN
- Socializing time!
  - Julius brought candy!

INTRO TO SLA
- Student Leadership Advocates
  - 4 facilitators
- A group that comes in and does team-building and leadership games to conduct mini-retreats for different organizations
  - You can have them come to other student organizations, residence halls, etc.
  - If you’d like to join, applications are out!

INTRODUCTION GAMES
- Name Ball Game
  - Learn people's' names while throwing the ball in different patterns
- Famous Pairs
  - Figure out the name hidden on your back by asking yes or no questions to others
  - Find your “famous pair”
    - Ex. PB and J, Bonnie and Clyde, salt and pepper

TEAM-BUILDING GAMES
- Human knot
  - Join hands and everyone and find a way to untangle yourselves as quick as you can
    - “Levels” get progressively more difficult, where people can't speak
- Circle in a Circle
  - Join hands in a circle and link a hula hoop between the arms
  - Objective: have everyone in the circle step through the hula hoop while keeping hands locked
    - Levels get progressively harder, with two hula hoops or people having to close their eyes

DISCUSSION
- What did you learn about leadership from these games?
  - There’s a time to lead and time to follow
  - Some are more comfortable speaking out and some are more comfortable staying back, and both are needed
  - Helping each other out is good
  - Sometimes you have to change your strategy halfway-so be flexible
  - Teamwork is great!
- Past events discussions
  - Wicked
    - Importance of different
  - Community Commitment
    - Shared different community service projects that we did
- Other places to do service at OSU
  - Pay-it-Forward
  - Buckeye Civic Engagement Connection

MUNDO UPDATES
- Check out the MUNDO website to look at the upcoming events on our calendar!
  - http://involvedliving.osu.edu/mundo/
- Some events require registration-register at http://involvedliving.osu.edu/mundo/register/
  - Greek Festival
    - Confirmation emails for free tickets have been sent, but if you still want to go with MUNDO, we’ll be meeting at 12noon on September 5th at the Brutus statue and tickets at the door at $5
  - The RENT Experience
  - The Detroit Experience
  - Soph-toberfest!
    - Priority for sophomores and higher, but anyone can attend
- MUNDO Statement
  - Paper that outlines what we can expect from you and what you can expect from us
    - Also outlines the “point system” to become active members
      - You can still come to MUNDO events, attend trips and such, even if you are not an active member. We welcome all!
        - Active membership will give you voting rights during our elections for exec board and priority in some sign-ups
          - Some events are targeted towards different groups, thus giving them “priority,” however, these trips are often a mix of different students and groups, so sign-up when you are not priority.
          - The only way to not have a chance to attend is to not sign-up.
  - Please bring back signed at next MUNDO meeting
    - September 12th

CONCLUSION
- No MUNDO meeting on Labor Day
  - Instead, we’ll be going to Greek Festival
- Next meeting will be a service project and discussion!
  - Want to be more conscious and respectful of individuals’ beliefs and cultures? At MUNDO, we want everyone to be culturally aware of different religions, abilities, and boundaries. Explore how this relates to service programming while doing Sunshine service for the James Cancer Hospital through the KindCarts Service Initiative.
  - Get ready for a night of discussion and crafting!
